	4/10/2001 Heard Shri Vipin Punjabi, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri A.S. Gaharwar, Sr. Central Government Standing counsel for respondent. Shri Gaharwar submits that this matter should be examined by the Central Administrative Tribunal which is functioning at the moment at Jabalpur for the States of Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh. It is also further submitted by Shri A.S. Gaharwar that in fact the petitioner ought to have filed the appeal before the Competent Authority, but the same has not been done. Be that as it may, it seems that the petitioner should approach the appropriate forum namely Central Administrative Tribunal for redressal of his grievance. In view of the reasons stated above, I am not inclined to accept this petition and the same is rejected. Sd/- Chief Justice rsnr*
